SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1888.

BLAINE'S majority in Nevada is about 1,000.

BLAINE'S majority in Oregon will exceed 5,000.

The imports at New York for the week ending yesterday were valued at $9,000,000.

It is reported that Mr. Gladstone will succeed the late Prof. Fawcett as Postmaster-General of England.

All election riders were abolished at Paris yesterday by Mme. Felix Faure, the President's wife, for Receptions de Dame.

THE Chilean minister has resigned, and will be succeeded by Señor Don Manuel Antonio Matta, who is now Chilean minister to the Argentine Republic.

A DEADLY feeling of hatred is engendered among the Irish people by the fact that the Parnellites are receiving money from the Irish in America, while the Anti-Parnellites are not.

THE Chicago produce markets were rather more active Saturday, and the leading wheat pit was busy, under large selling orders, partly from the northwest. As compared with the first week of October, corn is lower, but most kinds of oats lower, wheat ½ cent lower, rye ½ cent lower, some unchanged, rye ½ cent higher, barley steady, and flaxseed easier. During last week our stock of wheat increased about 600,000 bushels, and that of corn decreased about 750,000 bushels.

A DEADLY CONDITION OF NEW YORK.

There is not wisdom enough in any mortal man to ascertain upon present information whether New York has gone for Cleveland or for Blaine. The verdict has been rendered by the people of New York, but it has been rendered under seal, and the seal is not broken, and won't be until next Tuesday. There seem to be about 1,000 returns in the hands of the County Clerks, or there are 1,000 precincts, no returns, outside of New York and Brooklyn. These returns represent normally the votes of as many electoral districts. The various estimates of majority have been made up from unofficial reports of the tallies compared by the station loungers. Five fifth cannot be placed upon such reports when the result is so close as to be doubtful. Election inspectors may have given the information to party managers in attendance at the polls, or to gatherers, or to telegraph or newspaper reporters. But the most that can be said of such information is, that it should be approximately accurate. Appreciation will not determine it to a question of a few hundreds to a vote of 1,100,000. The present estimate of the majority in Illinois may not be within a thousand votes of the actual returns when they come to be counted. In Illinois, however, the majority is known to be so large that there is no reasonable ground for apprehending that the final count will change the accepted result, while in New York the majority is known to be so small that a few hundreds will fix the lean on one side or the other.

How go about adding such other: "Is you give it up?" People on the streets invent their pastime in hourly editions of this obliterating evening sheets with the absurd hope of getting some new light. Yesterday some people were simple-minded enough to think that the great doubt was settled because the running stock-quotient Jay Gould had cast Cleveland a helping thumb, "congratulating him on election!" Tomorrow there will be something else to receive undisturbed conviction at quite new decibs. All this is very ridiculous.

The people must wait until the mists of the returns are broken and the vote is counted, and the result that shakes up their minds to find but few more comfortable they will be.

To control of states one gives a fresh candidate the Presidency, and no amount of declaration can withhold it from him. The vote has been cast, but it has not been counted; in the meantime no man on earth may say what it is nor predict with any assurance whether

BUSINESS.

A Decidedly Bearish Week Shadows Chicago and New York Operations—Some Rallying Rumors.

The Produce Markets Have Active—The Leading Cereals Weak, with Reactions Selling Orders.

Wheat at the Lowest Point Known in Many Cash Options Years.

MONETARY.

Clearings at the principal cities of the United States for last 24h December were:

The New York exchange—the amount of balances yesterday:

Chicago, the amount,
Boston, generally unchanged,
Cincinnati, slightly increased,
St. Louis, the amount,
San Francisco, $1.2 decrease,
New Orleans, $1.2 decrease.

The financial atmosphere yesterday was rather unclear on account of the political situation and the anniversary of the Garfield outlook. Operations in the [illegible] were of about the usual order of late—that is, [illegible] reduced the aggregate of each. Outside [illegible] to prevent the demand for money [illegible] there did not anything like activity. The [illegible] exceedingly light price of [illegible] exchange attracted attention. The [illegible] silly rate at the [illegible]. The demand for bills by the country bankers was large. The currency [illegible] for exchange were small. There were no changes in the actual conditions for foreign exchange, but the market was weaker, and it was supposed that gossip would decline the coming week because of purchases of cotton on account by foreigners. The following were the prices:

[illegible]

The only feature of the market for investment securities was the [illegible] of the government bonds and a decline in the prices. The demand for other securities was small. The only sale on the Chicago Stock Exchange was that of $1,000 of Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe stock at 40¼ ex div.

There was a decline in the New York market, and the trading was very dreary, particularly at the close. It was thought that a general liquidation had been started, that there would be subject to call freely, and a rise of some would be expected. The list of $5,000 was offered that Western Union would sell at 81 on Saturday night. It is said that Gould has been successful in trying to sell out some of his securities, and he is thought to be anxious to get on the short side of the market. The railroad men continue, and the West Shore people say that the opening of the track has occasioned [illegible] to be there, to the confusion [illegible] principles of the combination. Some of the West Shore bondholders are [illegible] the present prices and have [illegible] that the road is earning [illegible]. They compare it favorably to get rid of the investment. The [illegible] are likely [illegible] that all is [illegible] on the dollar. It is claimed that the Lake Shore fund will save $500,000 of net [illegible] this year. The natural effect of [illegible] will be lower prices, but the [illegible] may easily, and there will very likely be sharp [illegible]. There was a [illegible] to-day in the [illegible] yesterday, but part of it was supposed to be [illegible] investments purchases of our stocks by foreigners and [illegible] etc. The Sterling Gold will ask for a reduction of the interest guaranteed on the stock of the Union Canal. The Express Facts asserts that the earnings in July, August and September, applicable to the stock, amounted to 7½ per cent. It was announced that the loan of the Oregon Navigation and the Oregon Short Line had been [illegible]. The trustees of the Pacific mail steamer [illegible] and advertise directing that they will [illegible] to-day. It is [illegible] that there was an increase of $1,711 in the net earnings of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Road in September instead of a decrease of that amount, as reported [illegible].

The weekly statement of the New York associated banks is not enough to satisfy the most radical bear. There is a decrease in the loans, an increase in the cash items, and an increase in the deposits, while the reserve shows that enough the Sabbath figures during the present movements. All the [illegible] indicate improvement in business. Business, however, a part of this encouragement is due to the [illegible] movement, and while that is even [illegible] to some movement of the funds to New York. The increase in the legal-tender item is certainly encouraging to the [illegible] of moving crops this city. Some of the gold is [illegible] from Europe. The following are the items of the statement:

[illegible]

The bank clearings in this city for last week [illegible] a fair showing as compared with the corresponding period of 1880, when a [illegible] week had just [illegible]. The following was the [illegible] of the Chicago Clearing House for the week ending [illegible]:

[illegible]

New York, Dec. 3.—[Special.]—The Stock's special [illegible] says: Under [illegible] and gloomy [illegible] to-day, [illegible] a [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] of prices to the lowest point [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

"We'll Follow Where the White Plume Waves" and the "Black Eagle" Is Bound to Command.

Nobody should be deceived by the shouts of some Democratic parades and celebrations last night in all parts of the United States. These demonstrations were made to empower a few men with them William H. Barnum, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, which has repeated to the Chairman of all the State Committees, and through them to county and township committees. The Congress of yesterday printed this startling appeal to the Boston heart, as follows:

Democratic National Headquarters, No. 24 West Twenty-second street, New York, Nov. 1.—To the People of the United States: Reports at every Democratic meeting in the United States to-night indicate the utmost fullness of confidence and enthusiasm. Democrats everywhere throughout the United States are urged to make a demonstration of gladness and gratitude by firing cannon at sunrise. Such demonstrations ought throughout the world. Signal stations over agitation to a success that will astonish mankind. The men of New York are resolved not to submit to the gross outrage of robbery of the government upon their rights, and will speak for themselves.

WILLIAM H. BARNUM,
Chairman National Democratic Committee.
A. P. GORMAN,
Chairman National Executive Committee.

In view of the fact that the official returns of the votes cast in the State of New York has not yet been made, and that there is no way in which the results of the election can be judicially ascertained except in the manner prescribed by law and by the officers entrusted to declare them, the appeal of Mr. Barnum to his party friends to "celebrate" a victory before the law has awarded it, and to overthrow an outrage before it has been attempted, is in the highest degree inflammatory and dangerous. It shows the ruthless spirit of the men and those who are behind him.

The "celebration" in the North, and especially in Chicago, were in the highest degree brutal and perfunctory. There was no heart in them. We have no knowledge of yelling and tooting of the horns; but of genuine American cheering there was very little. The better class of Democrats were not in the procession. Those demonstrations are to be regretted only because they may have the effect, which we have no doubt was intended, of intensifying disappointment among Democrats if Mr. Blaine shall finally be elected President. The excuse and motive of Barnum in deliberately intending to produce such a state of exasperation among Democrats that they will not submit patiently to the ascertainment of the fact cannot be too strongly condemned.

THE TRIBUNE repeats what it said yesterday morning: That if Mr. Cleveland has a legal plurality of one vote in the State of New York he will be inaugurated President with the emphasis and cheerful acquiescence of every citizen of the United States; but if Mr. Blaine has received a majority of the votes cast, counted, and added, and has in the custody of the lawful officers, and this result shall appear from the canvass made in accordance with the forms of law, it is an outrage that the Electoral vote of New York will be cast for him, and that he will be the next President of the United States, as it is that for any citizen or the world to question upon its face.

We regret the wild and passionate demonstrations of the Southern people, elated by Democratic predictions, as to the election in New Hampshire. Can it be supposed that the people of the United States are to be coolly bulldozed by bands of Southern men, or that their laws are to be suspended, or their action in any degree controlled or the unknown decrees of the Chicago conclave? What will the people do? Will they submit to have the Southern policy of fraud and intimidation extended over the North?

We have authentic information from the best sources that some of the pretended returns in New York City and in certain of the counties have been "doctored" in such a way as to give Cleveland an apparent plurality, when in truth the votes distinctly certified elected Blaine by over 1,000 majority. We are also informed that these facts are well known to the members of the Democratic National Committee, and that they are cognizant that when the votes are officially canvassed Tuesday it will probably be proved that Blaine and Logan have a plurality according to the figures returns signed, sealed, and delivered to the proper officers, and not shown out of their custody or in any way capable of being interfered with. The suspicious "gains" which the Democratic County Clerks have reported will not be found to be the vote as officially canvassed, and it is the knowledge of this fact which has caused Barnum and his agents on the Democratic Committee to incite their followers throughout the United States to premature demonstration of joy, and, if possible, to intimidate and stampede the rank and file of the Republican party on the supposition that the declaration of the vote may be a fact.

Now we return to Mr. Cleveland and his managers with renewed duty devolving upon any of "Tell the ." We intend that the truth shall be told, and that the votes honestly cast shall be honestly counted, let the consequences be what they will. The Republicans dairy has never flinched in the face of any responsibility imposed upon it, and it will not shrink or waver now.

The people will not submit to an extension of the area of intelligent outrage which the Democratic National Campaign Committee clearly outlined in their inflammatory address to the public.

We suggest to the Democrats that they grow, subside of fireworks, and hasten in the priority to set the exact manner of ascertaining votes in the canvass of the county.

In view of the steps which has been and on the unofficial figures purporting to give the exact vote of New York for President at the late election, we desire to call attention to the interpretation to these same returns as printed four years ago. The figures as then given by the committee days by the New York papers were:

	Hoey.	Kelsey.	Polk.
Ward 1	2,000	2,000	2,000
Ward 2	2,000	2,000	2,000
Ward 3	2,000	2,000	2,000
Ward 4	2,000	2,000	2,000

The Herald and Sun of Nov. 4 each said that Garfield's majority was 20,000. As late as Nov. 5—one week after the election—the "official vote" of the State was given in all the papers as 21,000. But the official canvass showed that the plurality was only 21,022—a difference of 1,022 votes. It was only five days after the election, and on the third day—Friday—Mr. "Bill" Barnum pretended to be so positive of the result that he directed his party friends to "rally" all over the United States. In this connection it is proper to notice that Barnum asked the "fraud" cry in 1880 as vigorously as he has this year, and he was only quieted and silenced by the positive interference of some of the cooler heads of the Democratic National Committee. We invite those who may have confidence in Barnum's sincerity now to examine the records for 1880 and see how reckless and inflammatory he then was in order to form a proper judgment as to his character and purposes now.

The situation in New York, as we are informed from the highest authority, improved all day yesterday. A gentleman in possession of the facts, who is of the highest character—cool, calm, truthful, and upright—one who would not patiently submit to the false counting of a single vote—yesterday said to the editor of THE TRIBUNE the following private dispatch:

"I believe we have New York and are going to hold it, and we certainly will if our own party is not stampeded and frightened by the bullying attitude of the Democrats and the blustering, hysterical proclamations of Barnum and the National Committee. They are bluff sentinels into the public our whole plying their last resort of further fraud in every county of the State, and they have employed corruption while their plots to secure the majority for Blaine in the State are being formed by the efforts of Vanderbilt, Garrett, and Gould, and the money to carry State and is being furnished by these plutocrats. Democratic votes are most alarming through the efforts here to frighten the Republican National Committee and to terrify the party and intimidate public opinion. They are pursuing this bullying and intimidating policy and Democratic here in the desperate hope to scare a panic in the Republican ranks. If the Republicans of the country stand firm and say we propose to have a fair count in New York and to have every vote cast for us, asking nothing more, accepting nothing less, we shall have our own. Blaine's vote of New York by the majority given us at the polls, one hundred Blaine. If he is elected, as he is, but if our people can be bullied into a panic the Democratic game of bag and intimidation will succeed. The courage of the Republican party will entirely restore it to the situation, or I believe we will win."

In several of the districts votes had eight the "Rebel yell" was shouted over again, and there was wildly cheered, and the inconsequential reported in the words of "Dixie" and "The Bonnie Blue Flag." Hoboken and Jersey were invited in effigy and Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, and other leaders of the Union Army were denounced in Democratic language.

In Chicago and some Democratic cities the Democratic demonstrations were comparatively tame.

The latest advices from New York strengthen the belief in Republican circles that the Republicans have carried the State by a good majority. The Democrats are making desperate efforts to overcome the vote of such doubtful counties as Kings, Queens, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland, Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Columbia, Greene, Ulster, Sullivan, Delaware, Schoharie, Otsego, Chenango, Broome, Tioga, Tompkins, Cortland, Onondaga, Oswego, Madison, Oneida, Herkimer, Montgomery, Fulton, Hamilton, Saratoga, Washington, Warren, Essex, Clinton, Franklin, St. Lawrence, Jefferson, Lewis, Oswego, Cayuga, Wayne, Ontario, Yates, Steuben, Chemung, Schuyler, Seneca, Monroe, Livingston, Wyoming, Genesee, Orleans, Niagara, Erie, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Allegany, and Monroe. Returns from all these counties are expected to-day, and it is believed that they will show a Republican majority of 20,000 to 25,000. The Democrats have carried Albany, Rensselaer

New York, Jan. 1.—[Special.]—Society and fashion are just as wonderfully suspended but that a visible commercial is not to close to preclude a word and very positive fact to the effect. But the non-appearance of so many people as are habitually to be seen at such places that no absence would be observed in the general throng. The excitement of the week has been the approaching marriage of Miss Astor and Mr. Paget, and the fact that they are to be married in Grace church, and that Mr. Astor will give away the bride. This has been the subject of much discussion, and the fact that Mr. Astor has been so long estranged from his family, and that he has not been seen in Grace church for many years, has given rise to much speculation as to whether he would be present at the ceremony.
